Instruction for online submission of articles

Before submitting an article, you need to go through registration procedure. For this you should click on the main page of the site and click "Register." For subsequent requests to the portal, it will be enough to enter the e-mail and password specified during registration in the corresponding fields, then select in the registration window the "Send" button. If for some reason you can’t log in to the site, you can always restore access to your account records on the site by selecting the button in the registration window «Restore password».

Then you will see a registration form. Enter your E-mail address (your username), name and password.

After successfully entering the data, you will see information about “User successfully registered”. You will receive an email with the “Registration successful” notification.
Afterwards, you need to select the desired page of the journal series, enter the specified data and click the “Send” button.

After logging in to your account, click on the “Articles” button, then -click the “Add” button.
In the open window, you select the appropriate series, please enter the title, annotation and keywords. Next, attach the file with the article and click on the “Send” button.

After that, you will see a window with the data that you entered, and also, the status of the moderator’s review.

After review by the moderator the status of your article will change to “Accepted” or "Rejected”. If the moderator writes comments, they will be displayed in the “Comments” column.